COUNTERS

CS&L and MELOGRANO

CS&L is a consortium of over 40 social cooperatives dedicated to providing service to the individuals

In particular, the consortium deals with the orientation and job training by developing work integration services geared towards disadvantaged individuals.

The non-profit organization Melograno adheres to CS&L and carries out its social role by promoting the protection of its members' rights and those of its consumers. For years the organization runs counters and family orientation service paying closer attention to the foreigners and the immigrants.

Goals

The Proximity Counters dedicated to forcing citizens aim to remove all barriers whether they are cultural, informational, physical, organizational or bureaucratic.

- The goal is to allow all individuals to fully enjoy their personal and civil rights in an easier way.
- Safeguard everyone's rights sharing the different experiences.
- Help remove all the obstacles foreigners face daily
